Classic colours

Be inspired by the colours associated with the house of Burberry. Why? This brand has successfully given new life to British heritage style by subverting the traditional template of suiting. It's the perfect example of how classic can be contemporary. Work in a palette of white, black, red, grey and beige to evoke a sense of history.

Brooksfield blazer R2 099, shirt R569.
Ado at Sartorio Milano waistcoat R1000. Hugo Boss tie R2 295. Longines at Swatch Group La Grande Classique watch R19 000.

Not so classic black

When wearing a black suit, shake things up from that single-breasted, matte-black, waiters ensemble. Go for unusual textile finishes or silhouettes, like a double-breasted peak lapel, which is strangely unconventional.

Just Cavalli suit R34 900, shirt R8 200. Scarf stylist's own. Dolce & Gabbana at Luxottica sunglasses R3 090.
